Parts Authority Recognizes 2026 Vendor Partners and Representatives of the Year

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., November 05, 2026 – Parts Authority, one of the nation's leading distributors of automotive replacement parts, tools and equipment, announced the winners of its 2026 vendor awards at AWDA/AAPEX Industry Week in Las Vegas, Nevada. The awards honor the suppliers and representatives whose work over the past year did the most to move the business forward.

"Every one of these partners helped us serve our customers better this year," said Clark Hale, CEO of Parts Authority. "We are grateful for the effort, reliability, and trust behind these results, and we congratulate everyone recognized."

Company Awards

Supplier of the Year: SKF. Parts Authority's top vendor honor went to SKF for its outstanding overall contribution and the strength of its partnership across the year.

Import Supplier of the Year: Bosch. Bosch was recognized for delivering the quality products and dependable support that Parts Authority's import customers count on.

Partnership Award: DRiV. DRiV was elected for broad strategic synergy and continuous multi-category collaboration across product lines.

Supply Chain Award: Deka. Deka was honored for keeping product moving with consistency and dependability, a key factor in meeting customer demand.

Marketing Excellence Award: Dorman. Recognized for creative installer engagement, high-impact technician education, and targeted merchandising programs that accelerated new-to-market part adoption.

Catalog and Data Award: Mevotech. Mevotech was recognized for the quality of its product data, including accurate listings and rich content that make parts easier to find and sell.

Brand Recognition Award: Gates. Gates received this award for a brand reputation built on quality and trust that continues to resonate with customers.

New Vendor Award: Sylvania. Sylvania was welcomed with this inaugural recognition for making a strong first impression as a new Parts Authority partner.
